

The Big Day

Case Study

You have trained all your life for this moment and you have played a sensational game! You are lining up a shot for goal seconds before the MCG siren is due to sound. You must kick the goal for your team to win. Over 100,000 fans are screaming as you take the shot. You miss the goal by the barest of margins. Do you feel happy to have made the grand final, sad to have missed the shot, proud or disappointed? Draw a picture to show how you feel. Write a note to your best friend describing your feelings.
