An Australian icon

The Melbourne Cricket Ground was built in 1853 and since then, has established a marvellous history that compares favourably with any of the greatest sporting arenas in the world.

Fondly referred to as the 'G, Australia's favourite stadium has hosted Olympic and Commonwealth Games, is the birthplace of Test Cricket and the home of Australian Rules Football. Holding more than 80 events annually and attracting close to four million people, the MCG has hosted more than 100 Test matches (including the first in 1877) and is home to a blockbuster events calendar including the traditional Boxing Day Test and the AFL Grand Final.

THE YEAR AWAITS

There are plenty of exciting events to look forward to at the MCG in 2018, headlined by the AFL Grand Final, and the Boxing Day Test.

The MCG will host over 40 AFL home and away matches including the season opener, Anzac Day, Queen's Birthday, Dreamtime at the 'G and much more.

Australia will host New Zealand in the Boxing Day Test with Twenty20 and One Day International matches also on the horizon. Plus, the Melbourne Stars will play home games at the MCG in the Big Bash League.

Truly, nothing can match the calibre of events on offer at the Melbourne Cricket Ground each and every year.

“

My memories of the MCG date back to the Centenary Test in 1977 when I was nine. Since then some of my greatest memories with family and friends have been at the amazing MCG. From the Boxing Day Test, to the AFL Grand Final, singing the National Anthem at the Bledisloe Cup, or just a Friday night regular season local AFL derby... the MCG is like no sports arena in the world!

The stadium's structure, including the roof and seating tiers, is visible. A large, illuminated sign with the number '3' is positioned at the top center of the stadium. The overall atmosphere is vibrant and energetic.
